Attorney Rules Hill Could Not Fire Coaches

AUSTIN, Nov. 26.—The president of the West Texas State College at Canyon was without authority to dismiss two employes of the athletic staff of the school, Attorney General Grover Sellers ruled Tuesday.

The board of regents of the colleges, however, could fire the employes and the state would not be liable for a breach of contract if the men were dismissed for "good cause," the attorney general declared.

The ruling was given to V. A. Collins of Livingston, chairman of the board of regents, who outlined the problem at the college as follows:

"Some trouble has arisen at the West Texas State College, which has caused Dr. J. A. Hill to have to take action with reference to two employes on the athletic staff. He was forced to dismiss Mr. Al Baggett and Mr. Leslie Van Meter.

"They were both under contract for the current year ending June 5, 1947. It is my opinion that they were both clearly insubordinate to Dr. Hill which required their dismissal."

Collins then inquired whether the president had authority to dismiss, whether they could collect their salaries for the current month, and whether their salaries would have to be paid until the expiration of their contract in 1947.

The attorney general replied that the President of the West Texas State College has no authority to dismiss employes of that institution for any reason." But the board does have that authority, the attorney general said.

Where employes are dismissed for "good cause," said the attorney general, the state would not be liable for the salaries in the unexpired portions of the contract. The question of what is "good cause" comes within the jurisdiction of the board of regents, said the attorney general.

President Hill is on his way to the Board of Regents meeting, and could not be reached for a statement.

Al Baggett stated that his only interest was in receiving his salary for the balance of the year. Mrs. Baggett has resigned as librarian of Amarillo College and they will leave soon for New York to work on their Ph. D. degrees at Columbia.

Allen Ray Hawkins Seirously Burned Last Sunday

Allan Ray Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hawkins, was seriously burned last Sunday afternoon when he and his brother David, and cousin, Lynn Williams, were playing in their secret dug-out. The boys had gone to the home of Lynn's mother, Mrs. F. V. Brasher, after church and had gone out to their "hide out" to play. Some weeks ago, the boys had poured gasoline in the "hide-out" to kill red ants, and it had been shut off from the air since that time. When the goys got down into this dug-out through a special door they had made, it was very dark, so Allen Ray struck a match. The gas fumes exploded immediately. Lynn pushed David out through the door, and went back down after Allen Ray, who was burned too badly to get out by himself. Allen Ray was taken immediately to Neblet Hospital, where doctors said that he had third degree burns. David and Lyn were burned only slightly.

Canyon Stands Near Top on the Airport Project

Mayor W. A. Warren and Connally Lockhart took the blue prints for the new airport to Big Spring Thursday where they were presented to the CAA area engineer.

Mayor Warren states that the plans were approved by the area engineer and will be forwarded to Washington for final approval.

Mr. Warren was notified that early action may be expected on the airport. Canyon stands second in this area; fourth in the district; and sixth in the state. The area engineer complimented the people of Randall county for their interest in getting the airport plans ready for immediate attention by the government. Quanah alone stands ahead of Canyon as work on the proposed airport in that town has progressed further than the work in Canyon.

Location of the National Guard unit on the land fits into the plan of the airport, and neither unit will interfere with the other, Mr. Warren was notified.

The City Commission and Commissioners Court have entered into a joint agreement for the purchase and operation of the new airport. The location for the field is ideal, being just east of Canyon. The landing field will be close enough to the bus line and to cafes so that air tourists may walk to either place after landing. The field is accessable to college students who wish to take advantage of courses in flying which will be offered at the college.

HOPE UNCLE SAM

If Uncle Sam ever has to fight another war, we hope that the President will use good business judgment with patriotism in dealing with our allies.

Uncle Sam has been played for the sucker to a greater degree in World War II than was ever conceived by our allies in World War I. Each member of the United Nations truly wished to see how much they could fleece Uncle Sam for, and under the lease terms of Lend-Lease, we simply doled off billions of dollars for which we shall never receive a thin dime.

We know pretty well how England fared us in the transportation of our troops. It is now revealed that the British charged us $100 for each low enemy which was blown out to sea by our bombs and our artillery in driving the Nazis off the Pacific Islands. The very islands which either never had been British or else the Nips had driven them away.

And the Silurow got to us in a big way charging $100 per barrel for oil on the runways of the fields we built to whip the Japs, and $5,000 a gallon for power line poles, which sell in the country for about $25.

While Uncle Sam was being fleet by our Allies, just remember what was taking place at home. We were being played for the sucker—and a debt of $5,000 for each and every American was being piled up—which we will have to pay.

We see that Drew Pearson says that Roosevelt regretted in his dying day the fact that he had outlived John L. Lewis and that he, labor racketeers get a stranglehold on America. Maybe that is true, and maybe it is not. At least not Elliott has not rushed out with such a statement, and he is posing as the Roosevelt mouthpiece. If the statement is true, then Roosevelt did not know his American history very well. He forgot the trouble Lewis gave Wilson in World War I. Lewis has been a continuous trouble maker, and he is not apt to reform.

We see that Phillip Murray, president of CIO, says that CIO is not running around the country seeking to fill some one over the head. We wonder. He further advocates that management be willing to sit down with CIO and discuss problems with a mutual understanding. That would be fine and good, but when CIO sits down it has its mind already made up as to what it expected to get—and it has either gotten its demands, or called a strike. Mutual understanding is a wonderful thing, provided both parties are willing to talk sense and not take unyielding positions.

Down at Corpus the friends of Beauford Jester are grooming him for United States Senator. No doubt Jester will give Texas a fine administration as Governor. But he must either tackle Pappy O'Daniel in 1946 or wait until 1952 when Senator Connally comes up for re-election. By that time Tom Connally may not be in the mood to run, as his age of 75 will be a deciding factor. But that is getting a far piece down the line in discussing politics. The only sure bet is that Pappy will have plenty of strong opposition in 1946, regardless of whether Jester runs or not.

It is proposed to raise $23,700,000 to support United Nations during the coming year. Of the amount Uncle Sam will contribute $11,000,000. Russia will contribute $2,421,000. Where are the advocates of the Russian wonderful system of government? Do they still think of a Democracy as inferior to the Dictator way? Regardless of how we may feel about the United States being kicked in the deal, peace at any price is more desirable than war. Of course we shall dig up the money.

Having won a derby in the early days in these West Texas wilds, we do not believe that this headgear will ever surpass the prevailing Texas broadbrim. The designers of men's wear will not likely be followed in their desire to put a derby on the head of every man in the Panhandle.

PEACE ENTERPRISE AT WORK

Those who forecast that the virtual elimination of price control and a return to the free market would result in immediate and disastrous inflation, were as badly fooled as will be those who think that prices will return to "normal" overnight.

What actually happened was that some prices rose in the first flurry after decontrol. While some turned downward. The idea that the public would pay any price for anything was proved baseless. As Time put it, "More and more sales clerks heard two long forgotten phrases: 'How much is it?' and 'No thanks.'" And in the last week of October according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, food prices declined as much as 4 per cent.

On top of that, there has been a very noticeable improvement in the supply of both manufactured goods and farm products. That simply means that supplies are flowing through legitimate channels—and the black market is expiring.

On both the producing and retailing levels, the normal, healthy processes of competition are once more in evidence—and these processes are the best guarantee we have of a progressive, stable economy. Stores are going out for the customer's business. They are keeping prices at the lowest level consistent with the times. The free enterprise system is working—as it has always worked when freed of government-imposed fetters.

A GRAVELY DECISION

The basic issue underlying the continuing soft-coal controversy has turned into this: Shall one union have life and death power over a priceless natural resource on which our entire industrial system depends—has it the power to arbitrarily and successfully defy the authority of the government itself? Apparently it has.

No other construction can be placed upon the reopening of the unexpired agreement between the United Mine Workers and the government.

Commenting on this situation, the New York Times says: "Clearly the Administration has not yet learned that it buys a score of future strikes for every present strike that it settles in this way. It has not yet learned that a continuous policy of yielding to such threats merely calls forth a constant increase in such threats and a constant increase in the price demanded for settlement. It does not seem to know that it is about to set a precedent in the coal fields for still another general round of wage demands, more strikes and wage increases. It is giving a perfect demonstration of what might have been suspected in advance — that when the government takes over directly the settlement of wage disputes, the decisions made are based not on economic but on political considerations."

It seems ridiculous to hear of tourists losing large sums of money, and people being robbed of large sums in their homes. The banks of America were never in a stronger position. The banks offer every protection, so why carry around large sums of money? Travelers checks are offered to tourists, while deposit accounts are available to home folks. The crime wave is on the increase. Do not run the risk of being knocked in the head and robbed of your hard earned money. You will need that surplus money one of these days.

We see where teachers in many schools have been striking for higher wages. Why not strike? That is the only way teachers can get public recognition. The strike has secured the demands of industrial workers. While it sounds a little silly for white collared workers to strike, just where is the dividing line as to which group of citizens are entitled to strike and which is to be denied the right.

MEANINGLESS HAIR-SPLITTING

A good deal of meaningless hair-splitting is going on concerning the proposed Murray - Dingell public health bill. Some of its advocates seem hurt when critics say that the measure amounts to socialized medicine, and claim that nothing of the kind is intended.

It is true that the bill would not go whole hog in the direction of socialization, by having the government establish a monopoly on hospitals, clinics and doctors. It is equally true that the bill would regiment medicine—and that is always the first step toward eventual socialization. Once the doctor becomes dependent on the government for part or all of his practice and his livelihood, the beginning of the end would be in sight for free, private medicine.

Further, the fact that the bill makes government - administered health insurance compulsory instead of voluntary indicates the way the wind blows. One hundred million or more Americans would be forced to accept and pay for this insurance whether they wanted it or not. It would be deducted from pay check, precisely as are social security taxes, and the annual cost would run between $37.50 and $41 per capita.

Again, the measure would reduce and in many instances eliminate the patient's freedom of choice in selecting a physician. That is always true of schemes to make the practice of medicine in whole or in part a function of the state.

The great objections to the bill are that they would give an enormously costly bureaucracy stringent powers over the practice of medicine; that political favoritism would in great measure determine a doctor's earnings and success; and that the people would be compelled to pay for a state doctor when they might prefer to pay a private doctor. These are facts and not hair-splitting over words which change them.

THE REAL REASON

A British commentator of American affairs recently said that the United States was moving to the "right," politically speaking, while the rest of the world was trending toward the "left."

A more accurate view would be to say that the United States seems to be moving back to its philosophy of maximum freedom and opportunity for all — while much of the rest of the world is willingly, or not, being subjected to the deleterious philosophy of the super-state with its regimented, slavish peoples.

The recent elections were headlined as a victory for the Republican party, its first of national significance since it became the minority party in 1932. Going deeper than partisanship, however, it is clear that the elections, for the most part, indicated a strong, cohesive demand by the American people for sound Constitutional government free of the "isms" which have so long afflicted us. The Democrats, as well as the Republicans, who won seats in Congress and State governorships, generally typified this point of view.

The wisdom of the American voter is traditional, and he exhibits it again and again. We, as a people, accepted the regimentation of war in the belief it was part of the price of victory. But we didn't surrender our liberties—we simply "loaned" some of them for the duration. With the war over and the victory won, the people demand government, state and national, which will conform to our established free way of life. That is the real lesson of the elections.

Hill To Report Regents Friday

When the Board of Regents convenes in Houston Friday, they will have before them a report compiled by Pres. J. A. Hill to summarize activities and achievements both of the current semester and of the fiscal year which ended August 31.

In a list of recommendations for improvements at West Texas State, Pres. Hill cites the need for construction of a new residence for the president, for completing the Randall Hall annex and for naming two dorms now being prepared for occupation by ex-servicemen.

If christening of the two housing units proceeds according to plan, the group of three white permanent frames located farthest north will be known as Palo Duro Hall and the one between that group and Cousins Hall, to the south, as Tierra Blanca Hall.

Utilizing an estimated total enrollment figure this year of 1750 as the key to appeal for more funds, Pres. Hill points out that the long session regular resident enrollment has already increased more than 50 per cent over last year.

To Build President's Home

Regarding the necessity for structure of a new house for the president, he discloses that a possible site for the college-owned building has been chosen and that an architect is drawing blueprints.

"Upon launching the chapel building program next June," Dr. Hill explains, "the old home, which now houses the Veterans Administration, will be moved to another location."

Although mention of the move was not made in the report, Pres. Hill reveals that he has been authorized by the Board to ask the state legislature to finance a new library building.

So that they may report the actual situation on the campus, five legislators, Grady Hazlewood and Blake Timmons of Amarillo, Judge I. B. Holt of Lamb County, Billy Craig of Miami and R. L. Templeton, Jr., of Wellington, have been invited by the President to attend a meeting here Friday, December 6.

Crisis in Salary

Meriting special discussion in Dr. Hill's resume is the teacher-salary crisis brought on by the existing low scale.

"The existing salary scale is damaging to morale, and has cost us many resignations of teachers we could ill afford to lose. Several faculty members have accepted positions elsewhere carrying almost double their salaries here.

"We have already suffered terribly and will suffer near chaos next year unless the next legislature makes very appreciable salary increases," he continues. "Anything less than a 25 per cent over all raise will not save the day. Forty per cent above the present appropriated sums would give teachers about the same purchasing power as in 1937. Surely salaries were not too high on that date."

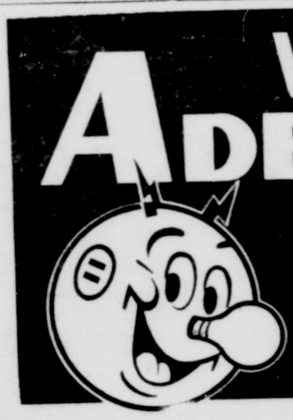
What ADEQUATE WIRING means to you



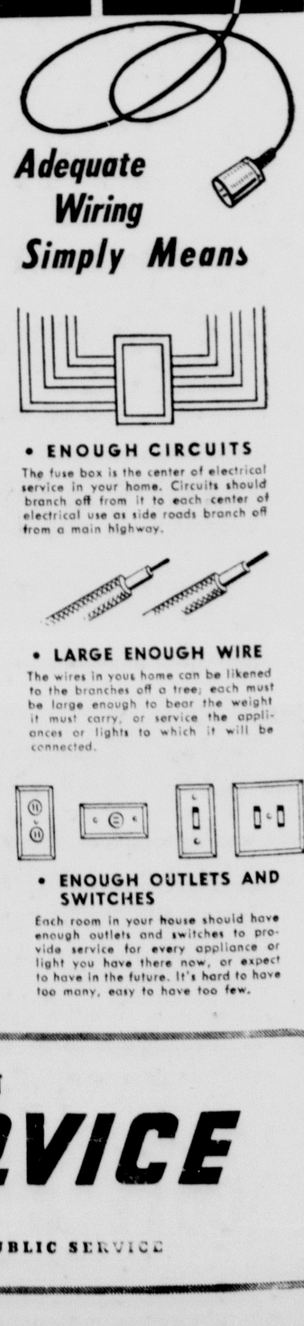
Every year you depend more and more on low cost electricity to bring you more convenience and economy in your home and place of business. As new appliances and other aids are developed, you use electricity more and more. You improve your lighting, too.

To have electricity accomplish these many tasks successfully and efficiently you should provide ADEQUATE WIRING.

ADEQUATE WIRING MEANS

1. enough circuits
2. large enough wire
3. enough outlets and switches

When you build or remodel your home call on your Public Service Company for help in planning your Adequate Wiring System.



Adequate Wiring Simply Means

• ENOUGH CIRCUITS

The fuse box is the center of electrical service in your home. Circuits should branch off from it to each center of electrical use as side roads branch off from a main highway.

• LARGE ENOUGH WIRE

The wires in your home can be likened to the branches off a tree; each must be large enough to bear the weight it must carry, or service the appliances or lights to which it will be connected.

• ENOUGH OUTLETS AND SWITCHES

Each room in your house should have enough outlets and switches to provide service for every appliance or light you have there now, or expect to have in the future. It's hard to have too many, easy to have too few.

Governor Stevenson Issues Proclamation on Thanksgiving

The 1946 Thanksgiving proclamation by Gov. Coke Stevenson follows:

The Ninety-Second Psalm begins with this beautiful words: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High," and the Twenty-Second Psalm contains this impressive statement: "All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord and all kindreds of the nations shall worship before Thee. For the kingdom is the Lord's; and he is the Governor among nations."

It is especially good this year to give thanks unto the Lord and to remember that He is the Governor among the nations.

Let us thank God our nation is at peace and our boys are at home. That the United Nations are striving to make this condition permanent among the people of the world.

Let us be thankful, too, that we have emerged from the recent conflict with faith in God and country unshaken.

That behind the open Texas smile there is seriousness of purpose;

That behind our show of humor and entertainment there is power and courage;

That behind our seeming care free indifference there is the same love of country which inspired our forefathers to heroic achievements; that behind the bickerings of the hour there is unity in our determination to preserve and protect the opportunity to labor and to serve in that manner which gives joy and satisfaction to the individual life.

Thanksgiving is one of our most significant holidays. Let us give evidence of the gratitude which is in our hearts as we consider the many blessings which have been bestowed upon us during this bountiful year.

Now,, therefore, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 28, 1946, as Thanksgiving Day and a legal holiday in Texas, and I invite the citizens of Texas to observe this holiday in appropriate manner. I especially urge that the United States and Texas flags be displayed in public places and on public buildings to signify our gratefulness for the privilege of living in this land of freedom and opportunity.

Cox-Smith Vows Read Here Sunday Afternoon

In the beautifully decorated First Presbyterian Church, Mozelle Smith became the bride of Thomas A. Cox, Jr., on Sunday afternoon, November 24, at 2:30 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finis E. Smith of Lubbock, and has been a resident of Ft. Worth for the past few months. The Groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cox, Sr., of Ft. Worth, and has made his home in Winter Garden, Florida since his discharge from the armed services.

Rev. Roy L. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the single ring ceremony, before an altar decorated with palms and baskets of white mums and flanked with seven branch candelabra holding white cathedral tapers. The tapers were lighted by Mrs. John Kizer of Floydada and Mrs. Lloyd Evans of Tulia.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Bernice Clower sang "At Dawning" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Lee Foster, organist. "Clare de Lune" was a soft musical accompaniment during the exchange of vows, and the traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Serving as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Dale Strickland of Tulia wore a dress of light aqua blue with gold trimming and carried a bouquet of white carnations with satin streamers.

E. B. Mitchell of Ft. Worth was best man and ushers were Gordon Lynn Dickerson, Harold J. Prichard and James Inman, all cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a black Fred A. Block crepe with wide peplum, and her corsage was of deep pink carnations. Mrs. Cox, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black dress with fuschia trim and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Block creation of silver beige Bianchini Dragonsatin. She carried a bouquet of orchids and white carnations, showered with white satin streamers atop a white Bible. Approximately 100 guests attended the wedding, a number of whom were from Kingsville, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Lubbock, Plainview, Floydada and Tulia.

A reception for approximately 100 guests was held immediately following the wedding at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. O. Elkins. The table which was covered with a white satin cloth, bore the three-tiered wedding cake topped with the miniature bride and groom, with crystal candelabra on either side. The punch bowl was at one end of the table and was nestled in a wreath of small white mums tied with green and white satin ribbon. After the cake was cut by the bride and groom, Mrs. Strickland served it to the guests. Presiding at the punch bowl during the afternoon were Mrs. Marie Sprinkle of Ft. Worth, Mrs. John J. Smart of Kingsville, sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Addie Hefner, grandmother of the bride. The bride's grandfather, W. B. Smith, was also able to attend the reception.

The couple will be at home in Winter Garden, Florida, after December 1, where the groom owns a Men's Clothing store. They will spend their honeymoon in New Orleans, La. For traveling, the bride wore a Navy Charmaine Gabardine suit with a powder blue blouse and matching hat and alligator accessories.

Mrs. Cox graduated from Tulia High School and attended West Texas State College. She has been employed in Ft. Worth with the Standolind Oil and Gas Company.

Mr. Cox served overseas 2½ years in Air Force Communications and was discharged this year. He held the rank of Captain at the time of his discharge.

REHEARSAL SATURDAY

Saturday evening, November 23, Mrs. J. Prichard, aunt of the bride, entertained the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner in her home. Those who attended, besides the bride and groom, were Mrs. Dale Strickland and Mrs. Bernice Clower of Tulia, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mitchell of Ft. Worth, Gordon Lynn Dickerson, Harold J. Prichard, James Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster and Sally, Mr. and Mrs. Finis E. Smith of Lubbock, Mrs. Addie Hefner and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. Prichard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster and daughter, Sally, also entertained members of the wedding party in their home on Saturday evening.

AMERICA OF OURS

AND TODAY those same sturdy American Characteristics are seeing us through one of the greatest crises our country has ever faced.

WITH THESE THINGS IN MIND, we wish to take this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation for the manner in which our customers have faced the present shortage of materials and machinery; we know it has been difficult for you, just as it has been for us.

THEREFORE, upon the occasion of Thanksgiving, we take pleasure in extending to each of you our Best Wishes—and of assuring you that we shall never forget the fine spirit you have shown during these trying times.

The busiest place in town is the telephone office

The telephone office is just about the busiest place you can imagine these days. There are more telephones connected to the switchboard and more calls a day than ever before.

Operators are doing their best to keep the speed and quality of service abreast of heavy demands. They handle most of your calls promptly, but sometimes, during very busy periods, there are more calls than they can answer as quickly as they'd like.

Shortages of lead and copper and steel and other materials that go into the making of telephone equipment are holding back expansion of the telephone exchange here and in scores of other towns. We have ordered new equipment, and are doing everything we can meanwhile to furnish you the best service possible.

These Players Flew to Victory

Rain-Soaked Tempe Field Site Of 7-0 Conference Victory

Taking the field on the heels of a hard rainfall, the West Texas State Buffaloes won their season finale Saturday night when they defeated the Arizona State Bulldogs 7-0 at Tempe.

The Maroon and White, who took off from Amarillo by chartered plane Saturday morning, had to fight for three and a half quarters before they culminated an 80-yard drive with a touchdown. Billy Greenfield ploughed over from the one-yard line and Junior Melton added the extra point.

A slushy field held the Buffalo attack down but they did manage to run up 14 first downs to 3 for the Sun Devils. The great kicking of Arizona end Montgomery kept the Texans in check and allowed the Arizona club to gain about ten yards on every punt exchange.

This game ended the 1946 football season for the Miller men and brought their season record up to five won and five lost. When Gus Miller took over the coaching reins near mid-season, the Thundering Herd had lost three straight games. The remaining weeks of the campaign saw Coach Miller tutor his charges to five victories out of seven games.

The fourth period drive of the Buffaloes was not the only scoring opportunity they encountered. In the second quarter, a charging team led by R. A. Boyter moved to the Tempe one yard line before Boyter slipped on fourth down and the ball went over.

Passes and runs enabled the Buffaloes to carry the pigskin to the fourth period tally. Arizona had been playing a seven and eight man line but the passing spree put on by the West Texans made them change their defense. This enabled Leroy Reeves, Boyd Williams and Billy Greenfield to accomplish their running plays. Three completed passes took them downfield where Greenfield slid over for the six points.

The entire West Texas State line performed superbly and Coach Miller was very happy when the game was over.

The victory left the Buffs in a second division spot in the Border Conference standings with a record of three wins and four losses.

Season record for 1946 is as follows:

West Texas	14	Texas Tech	26
West Texas	12	Houston U.	14
West Texas	0	N. M. U.	6
West Texas	13	Colo. College	12
West Texas	20	Texas Mines	26
West Texas	21	N. M. A&M	14
West Texas	20	Flagstaff	0
West Texas	7	H. S. U.	28
West Texas	7	Wichita	6
West Texas	7	Tempe	0

Sign Will Assume Rejuvenated Glow

In reply to a letter in the last edition of The Prairie, Business Manager Virgil Henson announces that the West Texas State sign located adjacent to the highway will shine again—at sometime in the near future.

Transformers have been removed for repair, and as soon as possible the sign will be repainted and thoroughly reconditioned.

Usually considered a class project, the sign was financed partially by the local chamber of commerce, which donated $100 and the college itself, which contributed $500.

"No wonder the housing shortage isn't ended," said the homeless veteran. "All the lumber has gone into roundtables for discussing it."

Rheumatic Heart Disease Is Cause Children's Deaths

Rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged 10 to 14, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its epidemiology is not completely established. No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox, and whooping cough has yet been developed for its prevention or control. We do know, however, some of the danger signals and with the physician's accurate diagnosis some of the damaging results of the disease may be prevented. Exposure to frequent chilling, damp or overcrowded living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold or other infection caused by certain streptococcus germs are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, points out that in general the danger signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows, or wrists. The pain usually is felt in one of these centers and spreads it to the others. Oftentimes a child will get irritable and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this attitude; he may cry easily or develop habit of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once in such a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

According to Dr. Cox the best safeguards against this disease are to have each child examined at least once a year by a physician, to have the right kind of food and plenty of rest. When the disease is suspected of being present, a doctor should be consulted at once, and if he prescribes complete bed rest, his advice should be implicitly followed.

OIL-PLATES Your Engine!

ACTUALLY a soap bubble is an extremely sheer net of molecules (held together by a strange attractive force) enclosing a sphere of air. And by pioneering in fields of molecular forces, Conoco scientists bring out new and better oils.

For instance, by molecular attraction, a special ingredient in Conoco Nth motor oil is bonded to working surfaces of your engine. Unlike the soap bubble which vanishes when pricked, Conoco Nth oil's ingredient holds on—is OIL-PLATED to cylinder walls and other parts.

OIL-PLATING stays up where it belongs . . . doesn't all drain down to the crankcase, even overnight . . . . gives you these benefits:

added protection when your engine starts up

added protection from corrosive action added protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon added smooth, silent miles

That's why to OIL-PLATE now . . . at Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's. Look for the red triangle. Continental Oil Co.

Historians To Enter Vandale Contest For Plains Writers

For the second time in as many years, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society is announcing opportunity for research writers to compete with other historians of the area to win a total of $250 in cash prizes.

First established by Earl Vandale of Amarillo, the Vandale Historical Essay Contest is open to anyone living in the Plains region, although slight preference will be granted amateurs.

Have Until Spring

With deadline for their entrance set at midnight, April 10, the papers may portray any phase of history of the Southern Plains and may utilize source material including reminiscences, diaries, letters or documents.

"Emphasis will be placed on human interest and general historical value," declares Dr. L. F. Sheffy, secretary to the Society and head of the history department.

Compile Bibliography

Essays should be documented with bibliography attached and typed, double-space, on one side of regular size typing paper. All entries become the property of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, the organization reserving right to publication in its annual.

Last spring a WT student, Carroll Doshier, took third place, a 50 dollar award. First price of 100 dollars went to Ernest Archambeau of Amarillo. Other two rankings, second and fourth, carry remuneration of 75 and 25 dollars.

This landmark was left in a heap after an intoxicated old man failed to stop while rounding a corner near the former beauty spot.

Last Monday two men repaired the damages to the fountain after the unfortunate accident of a few weeks ago.

Eagles Defeat Longhorns 48-40 20-46 Loss Downs Eaglettes

Abbott Scores 24 Points; Ford Makes 8 Tallies

Abbott and Wright Top Scorers

Abbott and Wright were top scoring basketeers in the first game with twenty-four and eight points respectively, to their credit. In the second game James Guthrie and Lee Bailey were high, both making five points.

In the first game Austell Burrus served as captain, and James Guthrie was captain of the second game.

"The boys looked good for the first game of the season," stated Coach R. D. Wheelock.

Girls Lose

The girls also suffered defeat in the game, the Longhorns coming out victors by a score of 20-46.

High scorers were Bobby Jean Ford with eight points and Martha Jean Avent who made seven points. Captain of the girls' team for the game was Dorothy Butler.

In regard to this game, Miss Aaron, Eaglette coach says, "Now that the first game is over and the new is worn off we are ready to start trimming them down to our size."

WORTHWHILE THINGS

So you want to know what you have to be thankful for on Thanksgiving?

One thing certain is that you are free and live in a free country. But you wonder if this is a free country-Why then when Lewis and his strikers disobeyed the President's advice to return to work did he not take over with the army but instead the strikers got a free trial?

We also have the four freedoms which provide us with all the liberties needed for any kind of a democratic nation. So instead of feeling sorry for yourself because you cannot gratify every one of your heart's desires be thankful for what you have. Often we do not appreciate the little things of life such as friendliness and smiles. They are worth your while.

Superintendent E. A. Wooten will find himself unusually busy during the Thanksgiving Holidays attending Texas State Teachers Association in Houston.

Friday morning he will hear the Honorable Coke Stevenson, governor of Texas, bring greetings to the teachers of the state as they open their annual meeting. Also, he will have the opportunity to hear an address by Dr. Kenneth McFarland, superintendent of schools of Topeka, Kansas.

Other teachers from the Canyon Public School System who will attend the convention will be Mrs. A. K. Goodman and Miss Kathryn Davies who will represent the Canyon Classroom Teachers' Association and other departments of the school within their jurisdiction.

CHS Folk Plan Holidays

There may be many things to be thankful for this year, but some poor ducks won't know about that, at least the ones Mr. Milton Sanders and Mr. Thomas L. Devin are priming their guns for.

Mrs. Cecil Sims, with her husband and daughter, will attend services dedicating the new electric organ, a gift from her father-in-law, to the First Baptist church in Panhandle.

"I imagine I'll just stay in Canyon," states Miss Lurline Bowman when asked her plans for the week.

Sophomores Will Write Themes

All sophomores will, no doubt, write illustrated themes as assigned by Mrs. Vernon, affirm the following: Sue and Fay Dickerson, Mable Ann Graham, Chloe Ann Black, Dorothy Butler, Jerry Inman, and Don Hickman.

Troy Burrus and Bruce Winn will hunt geese together. Wonder whose goose will be cooked!

Norris Root and Joe Abbott plan to eat, sleep and be merry.

"I'm going to read," declares Sue Ann Colwell.

Albert Craig plans to do nothing.

Frances Standley expects to enjoy a big dinner after having attended Thanksgiving services.

Mrs. Bartlett will spend her vacation in Plainview.

Gracie Boyd has no plans in particular.

Duck hunting, attending church services, and watching the Sandie Harvester football game will fill Maxine Barnard's leisure hours.

Juniors Will Memorize Play Parts

Memorizing play parts and more memorizing will be the lot of the junior play cast.

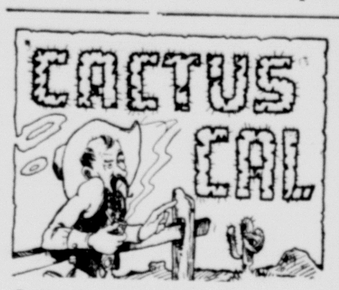
Betty Slagle will vacation in Panhandle, Texas.

Yum! Yum! Mrs. Kirkland plans to prepare one of those delectable, delicious, mouth-melting Thanksgiving dinners for which she is famous.

"Rattle snakes and prairie dogs,—here I come," so states Mr. M. D. Shepherd. "Yes," he continues, "and I'm going to put my feet under my sis's table, Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, and eat turkey and more turkey."

When asked what he was planning to do Thanksgiving, Mr. Hollabaugh replied that he was going to have Thanksgiving dinner at home with all his children, who are all present for the first time in four years.

Miss Grace Aaron plans to be at home in Quail, with her family during the vacation.



I didn't have much time to write this 'cause I'm trying to stretch my appetite till Thanksgiving but I scraped up a little. (O-h-h, scraping reminds me of eating.)

Well, the football banquet was quite a success in that it made some of those bashful boys have a date. The ones I remember were Sue Ann Colwell and Wayne Prichard; Juanita Avent and Dick Barrett; Nila Davis of W. T. and Wayne Davis, (no kin); Sue Dickerson and Bruce Winn; Faye Dickerson and Albert Craig; Ruth Lill and James Bible; Mary E. Jennings and Troy Burrus; Joanna Haines and Gerald McDuff; Mary Ruth Hill and Norris Root; Ava Dooley and Joe Abbott; and Frank Heare and Marian McReynolds.

Even Amarillo girls are trying to capture some of our eligible bachelors. Richard Walters, Harry Campfield, and Carl Hair just happened to meet them Sunday afternoon. They saw them on Sunday night, too. The girls then invited them to a "barn dance" Wednesday night. Some fun, eh?

Who is the boy that Betty Hutchinson calls every afternoon about 6:00? I was also told that this boy has a steady girlfriend.

That steady, steady couple consisting of Paige Carruth and Suzanne Stephenson seems to have fallen apart from all reports.

Robert McClendon is the object of an affair in the eighth grade. Bertha Lindsey and Faye Gunter are the gladiators.

Boy, that Geraldine Small is "keeping the old ball rolling" these days. Friday night Clifford Burtz took her to the banquet and Saturday night found her at the local cinema with an ex-student, Malcolm Gunter.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Chapter Presents Registered Gilts

Three boys: Rusty Davis, Travis Payne, and Donnell Ruthart, each received a registered Poland-China gilt Saturday.

The FFA furnished the gilts which the boys will keep until the first litter of pigs is weaned and then give the chapter one of the gilts of the litter in return for the one they received. After that, the original pigs are the boys' property.

The barrows out of each litter will be sold to members of the FFA The prize pigs are to be shown at the Fat Stock Show in March.

This plan started last year, when the chapter saw a need for improved stock. They had the chance to get two registered gilts from the Terra Blanca Farm and Troy Davis agreed to keep the pigs. In return he received two choice hogs.

Here is how it is to be! Each class from the seventh through the twelfth will nominate three beauties in classmeetings next week.

School Purchases 180 Yearbooks

Get your annual deposit in today!

Members of the "Soaring Wings" staff took annual deposits last week Monday through Friday. One hundred and eighty high school students have paid deposits of one dollar each.

Forty-eight businesses purchased space in the advertising section of the 1947 annual. There are several which have not yet been reached but the committee hopes to see all the businessmen before the holidays.

The elementary grades have not had a chance to pay their deposits as yet but will probably be taken care of by Thanksgiving.

The annual staff is not sure whether or not more than two hundred annuals can be ordered.

So we repeat, get your order in today!

THANKSGIVING

On that First Thanksgiving Day, the Pilgrims offered thanks for the preservation of their lives and the happiness which resulted from a good crop.

Today we have many more things for which we can be thankful — friends, neighbors, freedom of thought and action, and freedom of worship.

This Canyon firm is very thankful for the splendid business that you have given us, and we trust that we shall have contributed much to the blessing of your Thanksgiving through the services we have rendered.

Axiation Has Bright Future In This Viciniay

It looks like Canyon is going to be one of the favored few small towns in this district, and maybe even in the State of Texas, to be singled out for a large airport. It seems all the city officials are behind this project one hundred percent, and Mayor W. A. Warren expects final CAA approval on the plans, before too long. This is going to be a great boost for Canyon as it will bring many people into Canyon and give it a great deal of publicity, as well as stimulating the citizen's interest in private flying. And since Canyon is so near Amarillo and English field, if the field here is completed with topped runways, it can easily handle any overflow traffic out of English field, such as cargo ships, and feeder lines, etc. Of course, this is merely speculation into the future, but with the backing that the project seems to be getting, and the realization of what it will mean to Canyon, there is no reason why it couldn't be made true in from three to five years. Naturally, this field will have to have the full cooperation of the college as well as the citizens of Canyon. It could definitely put the college on the map, and be the drawing card for many students. By having a flying course in the curriculum, such as the college has had before, and a strict pre-engineering course as well, WT can head the list of State schools in Texas.

This is more speculation for the future, but with good backing and cooperation from school officials, it can be done. Time will tell of course, but prospects for the new airport look awfully good, and city officials are to be congratulated on the fine work they've done on it. It is certainly a project well worth the while, and will definitely bring many things in many ways to Canyon.

COLLEGE VETS GROUNDED

G. W. Cox temporarily stopped all flying of veterans who were taking the course under the GI Bill, through the college. Now, this has nothing to do with the non-college veterans flying school. College veterans flying was temporarily stopped because most of the boys taking it were not going to have enough funds from the Vets Administration to complete it. Therefore, in consideration of everyone concerned, Cox decided to curtail activities until certain arrangements between the V. A. and the college can be made.

GROUND SCHOOL

Ground school was started last week for the non-college veterans and E. H. Lindsey, instructor, reported a good class. Now is the time for veterans who plan to take flying, to get started in the ground school.

HERE AND THERE

This week, weather permitting, Leo Steinkoenig, president of the Veterans Association at West Texas State, will take two or three associates and fly down to Houston to meet with the Board of Regents to discuss veterans problems.

Russell Jones took a cross-country hop to Childress last week. Jones has his Private Certificate now, and is on his own as a pilot.

Rumor has it, and it seems to be authentic, that the Globe Swift company has reduced the price of their airplane from $5,350 down to $4,400, which is quite a reduction in anybody's language. Anyone who is interested in picking up a brand new little plane, completely equipped with two-way radio and everything, would really be getting a bargain by getting the Swift for $4,400.

Beech Aaircraft Corporation has officially announced receipt of the CAA approval for certification of their new Beechcraft Bonanza. This little ship has been undergoing continuous flight-test development program since Dec. 22, 1945. The main thing that has been holding up the CAA approval is the new "butterfly" tail. Deliveries are expected about December 10, and the report is that there's a backlog of about 1,500 orders.

There's a little village in Michigan named Gregory, and it boasts the population of 200 people! But, these 200 have gone all out for aviation. There was no airport there a year ago, but there were 15 licensed pilots. They formed an airport club and took a 10-year lease on a site and the whole community turned out to provide volunteer labor which made the field ready in two weeks.

About 100 persons have received their licenses since the field opened. There are 60 paid up members in the airport club, 24 veterans in the GI flight training program and 40 others taking lessons or already flying their own planes. And what's more, 30 farmers in the area have their own planes and fly to Gregory for groceries and mail. With plenty of determination, isn't it amazing what a few people in a small place can do!

Mrs. Shaw Gives Films to College

Because of their interest to the school, seven reels of film shot by the late Travis Shaw have been given the school by his widow, instructor in the English department, and are now in the film room being prepared for use.

Picturing different scenes in the history of the school, some of the films show the outdoor swimming pools on the Gordon Cummings and Raggley ranches.

Another set of movies preserving various campus scenes, buildings, students and faculty members through the years, Mr. Shaw called "Campus Odds and Ends."

Ruth Bryan Owens, famed daughter of William Jennings Bryan and the first woman to be appointed minister to a foreign country, is also shown in some of the films. They were taken when she was on the campus to make a Homecoming address.

Mr. Shaw was business manager of West Texas State before ill health caused his retirement. His hobby being photography, he took many pictures of the school and its surroundings. Mr. Shaw died during the latter part of the summer.

Philadelphia authorities seized $25,000 worth of narcotics and burned them. They were just a drug on the market.

Things are not always what we hope. The postwar period so far has been one of reconfusion.

Amarillo Pastor Spoke Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Dr. Edgar Neal, pastor of the San Jacinto Methodist Church, Amarillo, was the speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. He was introduced by Rev. Hubert Thomson.

The speaker outlined the mass movement of people today. We have lost the individuality of men, as they organize and move in masses.

In war men move by mass and sail in mass. Workmen move in mass through unions. Even school teachers are organized and move in mass. The youth mass movement started in Germany and Italy, and now we have various youth movements in America.

It is easy to be a part of the mass. But we need the development of the individual, rather than the mass. When the individual discovers himself, it is a great day in his life.

Peace officers saw three years ago that the youth crime wave was developing. It is here today. There is no use to become discouraged because of conditions, to become a cynic. It is the part of the individual to retrieve lost values.

An atheist declared that "Men turn to religion when bored with everything else." The speaker believed that is true. The "back to the Church movement starts when men realize that religion stands for something more than the crowd can offer him. As leaders of the community, members of service clubs can do no greater service to their community and for themselves than to get behind their churches, regardless of denomination, and do something in their community.
